1621.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

The following Extract of a Letter brings us the true Character of the New Pope.

Rome, Aug. 13. N. S.

BENEDICT XIV. tho' three-score and five Years of Age seems to be not more than fifty, and enjoys a Constitution which promises him Annos Petri in the fullest Extent. He is not very tall but well set. He wears his own Hair, which is naturally of the Chestnut Colour, but begins to be lost in the Greys. His Time was always regularly divided between Walking, Conversation, Study, and the Functions of his Office. Tho' he sat up late, according to the Custom of Italy, yet he rose at 4 o'Clock in the Morning, and study'd till 6 or 7; after which he saw Company, assisted at Divine Service, and attended other Duties, or walk'd abroad. After his Dinner, which were always temperate but elegant, he took an Airing on Foot or in a Coach, according to the Weather, after which he saw Company; and he concluded his Evenings with Conversation and a Supper. Besides the Tract which he wrote of Canonization, we have several other Works of his, particularly New Institutions for facilitating the Study of the Canon Law, which he was several Years about, and which may now be of the more Use because by his Authority he may get them receiv'd everywhere, in the Room of many sorry Books with which the Schools are burdened. Being free, open, affable, complaisant, generous, a sincere and faithful Friend, constant in his Resolutions, jealous of the Prerogatives and Decorums of his Character: His Devotion being solid, his Charity to the Poor uncommon, and his Humility being sincere but well regulated, all these great Qualities did he carry with him into the Conclave, without having and giving the least Occasion to suspect that he had any View to the Thiara.

By Order of the King of Naples several Poles of artificial Flowers are making in the Nunneries here, and in other Towns of Italy, to be sent as a Present by his Ambassador to the Grand Signior. Last Wednesday a Load of Presents was drawn thro' this City, which the Queen of Poland sends to the Queen of the Sicilies her Daughter, against her Lying-in. We hear that she is above 8 Months gone with Child.

Berlin, Aug. 23. N. S. Tho' the King travels incog. by the Name of the Baron de Gottera, yet he is known where-ever he comes, and the Post-master of Wirtemberg went to meet him, when he rode before him with 10 Post-boys blowing the Horn as far as Cleves; which City welcom'd his Majesty with a triple Discharge of 96 Guns. His Arrival was also notify'd at Leipzig by the Discharge of the Artillery. His Majesty is accompany'd by his Brother Prince William, the Baron d'Albergotti, and the Colonels de Munchau and de Borck. His Majesty's intended Visit to the King of Great Britain is no longer a Question; because Orders are given out to send the new Liveries for the King of Prussia's Pages to Hanover.

Hague, Sept. 6. N. S. The 25th ult. was the Day on which the States-General resolv'd to augment the Forces of this Republick, which Augmentation was to be of 11800 Men for Land-Service, and of 12 Men of War for the Sea. It was a Resolution form'd with the unanimous Concurrence of all the Confederated States, so that there's no Obstacle which can possibly hinder the Execution of it; yet when it will be proceeded on is not yet known; and some People who can't bear the Thoughts of a War, say it will be deferr'd till next Spring, and particularly the fitting out of the 12 Men of War. Their High Mightinesses have not only renew'd their Placart forbidding the Exportation of Corn, but to prevent a greater Consumption of it than is needful, have forbid the distilling of any Spirits from Corn for three Months, under certain Penalties. As the French have been great Gainers by Trade, since the Rupture betwixt England and Spain, so the Dutch have not been Losers; for the Navigation of the United Provinces has taken a new Spring, and the Trade of Amsterdam and Middleburgh flourishes visibly, and is on such a Footing as it never has been upon since the Beginning of this Century.

Every Thing is now very quiet in all the Towns of this Province, where there was lately any Disturbance on account of the Dearness of Bread. The present fine Weather, the Prospect of a plentiful Harvest, and the great Quantity of Corn at this time in Holland, where above 200 Ship Loads of it are arriv'd from Danrick, and other Ports of the North, within these 6 or 8 Weeks, give us Hopes that Corn will soon fall, notwithstanding the Monopely and Avarice of certain Merchants, who did not care if they starv'd the People so they did but stuff their own Coffers.

Versailles, Sept. 7. N. S. There was a Tumult here lately about Meal. As some Meal-Waggons were going thro' this Place for Paris, the Bakers stopp'd them, and would fain have oblig'd the Meal-men to sell their Cargo here; but the latter refus'd, and from Words they fell to Blows; in which the Mob interfering, there were 3 or 4 Persons kill'd, and amongst the rest a Woman with Child who came to the Assistance of her Husband. The Queen pass'd by during the Fray, and took an Account of it. The Magistrates of the Police, as well as the Parliament of Paris, do all they can to hinder the Bread from rising, it being actually 4 Pence a Pound already. Sunday last the Venetian Ambassador made his Publick Entry at Paris, with greater Splendour than any of his Predecessors.

Stockholm, Aug. 8. O. S. Count Ekblad is appointed Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Madrid. General Diemar sets out To-morrow or next Day for Hanover. The King and Queen of Sweden are at Ekonsund, but the whole Body of the Senate is to be assembled on Thursday next; and upon his Majesty's Return (which will be the Beginning of the Week following) it is suppos'd the Univerfalia will be published, and consequently the Day fix'd for the assembling of the States.

Hanover, Sept. 3. N. S. The Prince and Princess of Hesse, and the Princess Mary, having declared their Intentions of returning home, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry appeared Yesterday in the Evening at Herenhausen to pay them their Compliments upon that Occasion; and after Supper, their Highnesses having taken their Leaves of his Majesty, set out accordingly for Cassel. M. Utterodt, his Polish Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Great Britain, who has been here some Time, having obtained Leave of his Court to repair to Dresden, in order to pay his Duty to the King his Master, will set out accordingly for that Purpose To-morrow in the Evening.

AMERICA.

The Speech of the Hon. George Clarke, Esq; his Majesty's Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-York, &c. to the General Assembly of the said Province, the 30th of June, 1740.

Gentlemen,

HIS Majesty having been called upon, by repeated Provocations, to declare War against Spain, and being determin'd, by God's Assistance in so just a Cause, to vindicate the Honour of his Imperial Crown, to revenge the Injuries done to his Subjects, to assert their undoubted Rights of Navigation, and by all possible Means, to attack, annoy, and distress a Nation that has treated his People with such Insolence and Barbarity, has given Orders for the equipping and setting forth an Expedition against the Territories of the Catholick King in the West Indies, which will consist of a large Squadron of Ships of War, and of a considerable Body of Land-forces, with a suitable Train of Artillery, Storeships, and all things requisite; and has likewise given Orders to raise a Body of Troops in his Majesty's Colonies on the Continent of North-America, to join those to be sent from England, at a particular Rendezvous. I have, in Obedience to his Majesty's Commands, taken the best Measures in my Power, to invite and encourage his Majesty's faithful Subjects in this Province, cheerfully to enlist in his Majesty's Service for this Expedition: But it is in your Power to do much more, by giving a Bounty to every Man who enlists in this Service. And I am perswaded it will be such as will shew the World, that you will not be behind the most Zealous of his Majesty's Subjects, in promoting this glorious Enterprize.

Now, altho' by the Success of this Expedition, the Commerce and Navigation of this Province, to and from the West-Indies, will not only be secured, but greatly increas'd by the large Possessions which, by the Blessing of God on his Majesty's Arms, will fall into his Majesty's Hands. And altho' by such Acquisitions a Door will be open'd for a larger Consumption of Provisions (the Staple of this Province) whereby the Farmer, as well as the Merchant, may be greatly enriched; yet it is but little that his Majesty expects from his dutiful and loyal Subjects of this Province, towards the Expence of this Expedition.

And I am commanded by his Majesty, to recommend it to you, in his Name, as I do most earnestly, That you provide Victuals, Transports, and all other Necessaries for the Troops to be raised in this Province, except Cloaths, Tents, Arms, Ammunition and Pay, till their Arrival at the general Rendezvous in the West-Indies, from which Time the said Transports are to enter into his Majesty's Pay; in the doing whereof, I hope you will lose no Time, that the Expedition may not be retarded. His Majesty's Expectations are so just and reasonable, and the Prospect of Advantage to the Province so clear, that I perswade myself, you will cheerfully and immediately provide for the Expence of what is recommended to you.

These Things being Matter of the highest Importance, I will not now take off your Attention, by recommending any thing else to your Consideration, hoping you will give this Business the utmost Dispatch, wherein you will, in a very particular Manner, recommend yourselves and your Country to his Majesty, Whom God long preserve.

CONSUMPTIONS of all Sorts, ASTHMA's, and all Disorders of the Breast and Lungs,

Directly and infallibly cured by the

CHYMICAL ELIXIR,

WHICH has restored so many

Persons labouring under the deepest Consumption, to most deplorable Asthma's, to perfect Health, and some few Days Time, after all other the most celebrated Remedies and Medicines had been try'd in vain.

It at once strikes at, and absolutely eradicates the Cause or Cause of Consumptions, whether of the Lungs, or any other Kind, as also of Asthma's, or Shortness of Breath, reduces the vicious Ferment of the Blood, and purges the acrid Salts which erode the Lungs, from their obnoxious Viscosities, and does more real Good to mankind than any other Medicine whatever can intend.

It assuredly retrieves the Patient, tho' reduced to a Skeleton; and immediately cures the most tedious and almost suffocating Coughs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain, or Weight in the Breast, Spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, or Windpipe. Also Catarrhs, or Disruptions of the Lungs, and all Pellicular and Asthmatic Effects, Hebreic Pleurisy, Night Sweats, and Diarrhoea's, or Loose Stools, in a safe and most agreeable Manner.

It is balsamick, healing, and strengthening beyond Comparison, restores in all inward Wasting, Weakness, and of Constitution whatever, perfectly cures Pleurisy, or in any other internal Part, causes free and easy Breathing, or long Breathing, and specially cures Consumptions, ASTHMA's, and all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, in ever so bad, without the least Disorder, Trouble, or Interruption, and is indeed the only true Remedy that can be depended upon for the entire Cure of those Maladies.

Nor can the whole Materia Medica afford a quicker or certain Cure for common Coughs and Colds, but the Character this most noble Chymical ELIXIR has gain'd, for the direct and infallible Cure of Consumptions and Asthma's, &c. has occasioned many Attempts to counterfeit it; be careful therefore to have the Right, which may be had only at Mr. RADFORD's, Toyshop, at the Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and at no other Place in England.
